Calendars on Sale

A very successful venture! We are now on our second printing. The first 500 copies are sold. Many thanks go to Chuck Viens and Sanford Young for their time and effort on this project.

The calendars will still be made available at the following places: Nash's, Gifford's, The Variety Store, Zane's, Gauch's, Tiny Tots, Miller's Market and Bashford's. The price is inly $2.00 -- don't be left out!

Letter Sent

The Businessmen's Association of the Town of Sand Lake has been contacted to encourage all local merchants to fly a flag.

Rensselaer County Historic Preservation Council

The purpose of this committee is to promote historic preservation, assist in providing technical information on preservation, and assist with local architectural surveys. The foregoing goals apply to historic documents as well. Bob Harris is representing the Sand Lake Historical Society on this council. Ken Brock has been chosen to be an alternate. These two gentlemen would be glad to provide more information on request.
